THE WHITE HART

Long-established as one of the finest pubs in Southwark, The White Hart now blends 18th century heritage with smart modern style. Recently refurbished to a stunning standard, it's a super place to enjoy quality fresh food, great beers and fine wine in London's brilliant Bankside.

FOOD

Our talented head chef Paul O'Dowd and his team work with the freshest ingredients to create great modern pub food. With an exciting buffet menu, seasonal menus and new weekly signature dishes, there is something for everyone.

DRINKS

We have a wide and amazing selection of draught beers, and of course some of Fuller's cracking cask ales. It's not all about the beer here though, our wonderful wine list features almost 30 bottles from around the world, while our spirit collection offers something to suit every taste.

THE PICKLE SNUG

The Pickle Snug, named in honour of the cafe that stood in its spot for 30 years. It is a perfect space for smaller groups to drink, eat and socialise!

A wonderful space for small and intimate occasions and plenty of room for a cosy, comfortable and sublime sit-down meal.

It benefits from lovely bay windows, so natural light flows through the area. After dark, candles can be lit to add some ambience to your event!
